Fredrick Russell

President of True North Leadership Group, former President of the Allegheny West Conference

Friend to the NEC and internationally respected leadership coach, speaker, and consultant. He has served as President of the Allegheny West Conference and as Lead Pastor of the Berean Church in Atlanta, Georgia. With a background in theology and organisational leadership, Pastor Russell has equipped leaders across the world to serve with character, clarity, and compassion. Through his preaching, coaching, and writing, he inspires others to lead with excellence and integrity in advancing God's kingdom.

James Winegardner

General Conference Adventist
Risk Management (ARM)
President | CEO

An ordained minister with over 15 years of pastoral service, most recently at Keene Adventist Church. He is also an experienced attorney with 25 years in trial law, including work with Adventist Health System and Farmers Insurance. He holds a B.A. in Religion from Southwestern Adventist University and a J.D. from SMU's Dedman School of Law.
